

FINANCE

This course prepares students to plan, manage, and analyze the financial and monetary aspects and performance of business enterprises, banking institutions, or other organizations. Course topics include an introduction to accounting, the accounting cycles, accounting information systems, financial analysis, business law, entrepreneurship, and career planning.

SPECIAL CLASS FEATURES

- > Earn certification in Advanced Accounting (NOCTI) assessment
- > Obtain college credit from Accounting II
- > Compete in BPA
- > Earn Senior Math credit

EMPLOYMENT SKILLS FOR THE FUTURE

- Critical Thinking
- Communication Skills
- Time Management
- Accounting Software
- Math Skills
- Employability Skills
- Leadership

COURSE CONTENT

Computerized applications
Stocks and investments
Financial Statements
Proprietorship and corporations
Payroll and taxes
Cost accounting
Budgeting
Inventories
Spreadsheet operations

